1 (WHEREUPON THE FOLLOWING
2 PROCEEDINGS WERE HAD IN THE
3 ABOVE-ENTITLED CAUSE ON THIS
4 DATE.)

5 THE COURT: Good morning.

6 MR. STEELE: For the record, John Steele
7 and Kyle Cooper on behalf of Serina Ervin.

8 MR. WOLF: Jim Wolf, your Honor, on 9 behalf of Raymond Ervin.

10 THE COURT: All right. So I have read 09:26AM
11 the materials. My understanding of the motion
12 is that basically the order that is cited in 13 support of the citation is an order that was 14 vacated later.

15 MR. WOLF: That is correct, Judge. 09:26AM

16 MR. COOPER: And the response then cites
17 to another order dated in December of -- I can't 18 remember which year -- and suggests that that's 19 the order, actually, upon which the citation
20 should have been based. The response to that 09:26AM
21 being, well, that order was also vacated.

22 MR. WOLF: That's correct, Judge.

23 THE COURT: All right. So it's your
24 motion. I will let you argue it.

12/27/2016

Page 4

1 MR. WOLF: Your Honor, simply put, you
2 have correctly summarized it. In order for
3 there to be a citation issued, there has to be a
4 valid judgment which is the predicate for the 5 citation. Initially Counsel filed citations 09:27AM
6 allegedly based on a judgment order of May 21,
7 2008; that order, in fact, was vacated on
8 June 5th of 2008.

9 And, in fact, in their response, on
10 at least two or three occasions, Mrs. Ervin in 09:27AM
11 her response indicates that, yes, it, in fact,
12 was vacant. And in their response, Mrs. Ervin
13 asked that the Court, in fact, allow them to 14 amend something to add this order of December 5,
15 2003. 09:27AM

16 In our reply we indicated it's not
17 properly before your Honor but more so that on 18 July 30, 2004, that order, in fact, was vacated.
19 And so the initial order which was the basis for 20 the citation was vacated. 09:28AM

21 Counsel then shifts and says, Well,
22 let's amend things and include the order of 23 December 5th of '03; however, in their response
24 they indicate the clerk told them they couldn't

12/27/2016

1 do that. But more importantly it has been
2 vacated also.

3 So there's no judgment upon which a
4 citation can be issued, and accordingly the
5 initial citations issued should be vacated. 09:28AM

6 We would ask for an order finding
7 them null and void and directing anyone who has 8 been served with it that they shall disregard
9 it.

10 THE COURT: Response? And as part of 09:28AM
11 your response, I do want to hear what your
12 understanding of why the Circuit Clerk said you
13 had to go under this order, the December 2013
14 order, instead of the original order that you
15 cited in the citation. 09:28AM

16 MR. STEELE: Sure. I will concede I'm 17 not the author of these two what are
18 well-written briefs, but I did read them and I
19 can distill them down to the simple arguments
20 that I think you distilled them down to, which 09:29AM
21 is that Mr. Ervin would have you believe there's 22 no enforceable judgment to entertain citation or 23 turnover proceedings. We, of course, suggest 24 that there is.

12/27/2016

1 Now, I believe that context is
2 everything. And this case before you is not
3 your typical creditor/debtor lawsuit; it's a
4 claim regarding unpaid child support. As
5 perhaps the only family law attorney in the 09:29AM
6 room, I can tell you that child support is 7 treated vastly different under the law. For 8 one, just by way of example, a child support
9 judgment does not require revival to be
10 enforceable, even if it's 15 years down the 09:29AM
11 road. Two, laches doesn't apply to a child
12 support order. Three, you have no ability to 13 contract child support.

14 So there are various instances in
15 which child support orders are regarded 09:29AM
16 differently under the law. And because this 17 matter does stem from a family law matter, the 18 IMDMA, or the Illinois Marriage and Dissolution
19 of Marriage Act, is what applies as the 20 operative underlying statute. And while it was 09:30AM
21 noted in our response, I don't believe that 22 enough emphasis was placed on the fact that 23 Section 505(d) of the Illinois Marriage and 24 Dissolution of Marriage Act clearly creates

12/27/2016

1 enforceable judgment to serve as a basis for a
2 citation and turnover proceedings.

3 Mr. Ervin, in his articulate motion
4 and reply, completely glosses over this fact.

5 And if you read Section 505(d), which we cite at 09:30AM
6 the bottom of Page 5 of our response, it clearly
7 provides that with every missed child support
8 payment, that payment automatically converts to 9 an enforceable judgment by operation of law. So
10 to turn over the funds in this case, you need 09:30AM
11 only make a finding that he, Raymond, failed to 12 pay child support and that finding is

13 self-evident by virtue of the agreed orders that 14 have been entered in the underlying matter in 15 which Raymond stipulated to nonpayment. And I 09:31AM
16 will tender two orders in which he stipulated.

17 (WHEREUPON, the documents were 18 tendered to the Court.)

19 MR. COOPER: And these are attached to 20 your response? 09:31AM

21 MR. STEELE: They are either attached to 22 the response or the reply. And in each of those 23 orders, there's an acknowledgement that
24 Mr. Ervin did not, in fact, pay the monies that

12/27/2016

1 were alleged to have not been paid.

2 So I submit that if you were to
3 grant this motion to quash, you would
4 essentially be finding that Section 505(d) of 5 the IMDMA is inapplicable. You would be 6 releasing not a personal checking account that
7 Raymond is using to make day-to-day bill
8 payments, but you would be releasing a few life
9 insurance policies which are likely Ms. Ervin's
10 only hope of collecting support for her
11 children.

09:31AM

09:31AM

12 And, again, I will submit that once
13 it's gone, it's gone. And I think this fact is 14 manifested by Mr. Ervin's behavior since the 15 issuance of our citations. Specifically after 16 service of the citations, Mr. Ervin's attempted
17 to change beneficiaries on an account that had 18 been frozen. And I offer this solely for the 19 fact that if you grant this motion, the money is 20 gone and will never be found again.

09:31AM

09:32AM

21 If I were wearing the robe that you
22 are wearing, I would want to be 100 percent sure
23 that 505(d) is inapplicable before I would even 24 consider quashing the citations and allowing the 12/27/2016

1 money to be moved out of the children's reach.
2 When I said earlier that context is
3 everything -- by our calculations, this man owes 4 in excess of $1 million in child support. And
5 the Illinois Healthcare and Family Services
6 Office has a deadbeat parents website that kind
7 of ranks all the parents in the state of how 8 much they owe. And this man has got to be an 9 honorable mention at the very least for how much
10 he owes. He has managed to avoid supporting his 11 children for years through filing of appeal
12 after appeal. He went to the Appellate Court of 13 our state twice; he went to the Seventh Circuit;
14 he went to the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals.

09:32AM

09:32AM

15 His gamesmanship, I believe, has 16 run its course and cannot be permitted to 17 continue. And I am asking that you appreciate
18 the gravity of your decision today and not take 19 it lightly.

09:32AM

20 We are asking that you deny the 21 motion and Mr. Ervin's continued efforts to keep 22 from supporting his children and order a
23 turnover of funds pursuant of 505(d), which 24 creates an enforceable judgment; or in the

09:33AM

12/27/2016

Page 10

1 alternative, since Mr. Ervin completely glossed
2 over the applicability Section 505(d), perhaps
3 you can reserve ruling at this time and offer
4 Mr. Ervin the opportunity to submit a brief in 5 opposition where he actually addresses that 09:33AM
6 issue. Because whether or not it's the May
7 order, the December order, the vacated order,
8 Section 505(d) creates a judgment after the due
9 date of every single payment. And since he is 10 conceding he hasn't made those payments, there's 09:33AM
11 a judgment every single time.

12 Now, Section 505(d), from my
13 experience, creates a little bit of a logistical
14 issue because you issue a citation. And there's 15 a line in the citation that says, How much does 09:33AM
16 he owe and on what basis. So if you were to 17 follow 505(d), you would have -- by way of 18 example -- January 1, $1,000; January 2, $1,000;
19 January 3, $1,000.

20 THE COURT: So there's an underlying 09:34AM
21 order that requires him to pay a set amount per 22 month?

23 MR. STEELE: Correct.

24 THE COURT: Where is that order?

12/27/2016

Page 11

1 MR. STEELE: It's Exhibit A to our
2 response, which is a Canadian judgment that was
3 enrolled in Lake County which is the basis for 4 the underlying proceeding. When I refer to it
5 being a logistical issue, unless you are to 6 issue a citation on every single payment, at 7 some point you have to issue it on the aggregate
8 of the underlying series of judgments that
9 Section 505(d) contemplates.

09:34AM

10 So, again, I think that 505(d) does
11 create an enforceable judgment; it does impose a 12 lien on Mr. Ervin's property based on his 13 payment of support which he admits to. And,
14 frankly, I've heard no reply from Mr. Ervin's
15 counsel anywhere in his briefs about why 505(d)
16 doesn't apply.

09:34AM

09:35AM

17 So, again, we are asking that the 18 motion be denied.

19 THE COURT: So the order that you are
20 seeking to enforce is the August 31, 2000 order
21 entered in Ottawa and specifically what 22 paragraph of that?

09:35AM

23 MR. STEELE: Child support is set forth
24 in Paragraph 7 on Page 2.

12/27/2016

1 MR. COOPER: $5,400 a month.

2 MR. STEELE: Correct. And, again, this
3 judgment was enrolled in Lake County and there
4 was a subsequent --

5 THE COURT: Where is the document 09:35AM
6 enrolling it in Lake County?

7 MR. STEELE: I don't believe that we've
8 attached that, but that's how this proceeding is 9 before the Court. The underlying action was the 10 registration of the order and a subsequent 09:36AM
11 petition to enforce the order, which is the 12 petition for rule upon which Mr. Ervin curiously
13 appealed not once, but twice.

14 THE COURT: For failure to pay $5,418 a
15 month? 09:36AM

16 MR. STEELE: Correct.

17 THE COURT: I'm not sure why, but I
18 don't appear to have the entire file here.

19 MR. STEELE: It's a difficult file to
20 acquire. Some of it is on microfilm, 09:36AM
21 microfiche.

22 THE COURT: I'm looking for an order
23 that would have enrolled the judgment.

24 So you don't know why the clerk's

12/27/2016

1 office supposedly told your predecessor that
2 they couldn't file it under, let's say, the 3 enrollment order?

4 MR. STEELE: My understanding is that
5 the clerk's office shouldn't be the gatekeeper 09:37AM
6 of what can be filed. I should be able to walk
7 in with a ham sandwich and say, Stamp this. But 8 I think Mr. Cooper can address that because he 9 was the one working with the Clerk's office.

10 MR. COOPER: It is our understanding, 09:37AM
11 your Honor, that that 2000 case number was -- it
12 was dismissed for lack of subject matter
13 jurisdiction, which was the reason that the '04
14 case had to be filed. It was in the '04 case
15 where there was an order enrolling the Canadian 09:37AM
16 judgment that was subsequently appealed to the 17 Second Circuit which affirmed the trial Court's
18 order enrolling the Canadian judgment.

19 Attached as Exhibit B to the
20 response is the Second District's Appellate 09:37AM
21 Court order affirming the trial Court's order
22 enrolling the Canadian judgment in Lake County
23 which serves as the basis for the underlying 24 citations.

12/27/2016

Page 14

1 THE COURT: So the Second District, in
2 their Rule 23 opinion, held that the October 7,
3 2004 registration of judgment of the Canadian
4 judgment in Lake County was proper?

5 MR. COOPER: Right. 09:39AM

6 THE COURT: So why wasn't the October 7,
7 2014 document the document upon which you based 8 the citations?

9 MR. STEELE: It was.

10 MR. WOLF: No. 09:40AM

11 MR. STEELE: Are you asking why we 12 didn't go under the '04 case number or why we 13 didn't go under the October 7th order?

14 THE COURT: The October 7th order.

15 MR. STEELE: Because the October 7th 09:40AM
16 order was simply the order that registered the 17 judgment. That's not the order that sets forth
18 the basis for enforcement. That's not the 19 judgment upon which we are attempting to 20 enforce. That's just the initial order. 09:40AM

21 THE COURT: So bottom line, what's the 22 judgment you are trying to enforce?

23 MR. STEELE: Exhibit A, which is the 24 order that sets forth the child support

12/27/2016

1 application. And, again, 505(d) says, Any new
2 or existing support order entered by this Court
3 has been deemed to be a series of judgments
4 against the person obligated to pay support,
5 each such judgment to be in each amount or 09:41AM
6 installment of support and each such judgment to 7 be deemed entered as of the date of the 8 corresponding payments or sum that becomes due
9 under the terms of the support order. Each such 10 judgment shall have the full force and effect 09:41AM
11 and attributes of any other judgments to this
12 date including the ability to be enforced.

13 So the judgment that's attached to 14 Exhibit A is the initial underlying basis for 15 the citation. And then after the first month's 09:41AM
16 missed payment, that's a judgment; after the 17 second month, that's a judgment.

18 THE COURT: Under what?

19 MR. STEELE: Section 505(d).

20 THE COURT: But under what order? 09:41AM

21 MR. STEELE: Under the judgment that's 22 attached as Exhibit A. I think it was 23 Paragraph 7. Sets forth the child support
24 obligation. And if this order was entered

12/27/2016

1 August 31st, then assuming he missed his
2 September 2000 payment, there's a $5,418 -- or
3 Canadian dollars -- judgment. And then on 4 October 2000, there's another judgment;
5 September, another judgment; November, another
6 judgment. All the way up through today.

09:42AM

7 THE COURT: Not to complicate matters,
8 but if everything stems from the judgment that 9 was entered in Ottawa that got registered in 10 Lake County, then why does it matter that 11 there's an ongoing violation? Why wouldn't you
12 say simply -- oh, because -- Okay.

09:42AM

13 So there was no back child support
14 ordered in the 2000 order out of Ottawa?

15 MR. STEELE: That's correct.

09:42AM

16 THE COURT: It was just a prospective
17 only?

18 MR. STEELE: Correct.

19 THE COURT: What I don't understand,
20 then, is how you got around to referring to an 21 order in the citation that's been vacated. I
22 understand the argument you are making today,
23 and to me it makes sense. Why wouldn't that 24 order be enforceable if it was registered in

09:42AM

12/27/2016

Page 17

1 Lake County? But why wasn't the combination of
2 that order and the Illinois registration of that
3 order cited as the basis for the citation? Or 4 could it be?

5 MR. STEELE: So that's just the logic 09:43AM
6 issue that I'm referring to. When it gives you
7 like a two -- not even -- an inch-and-a-half
8 line that says fill the date of the order in, a
9 half line that says fill in the amount of the 10 order. And unless you were to say August 2000 09:43AM
11 order and then 5,418, 5,418, 5,418, August,
12 September, October, November, December, you
13 would have to either do a citation for every 14 single month after that judgment or you would
15 have to just reference some sort of stopping 09:43AM
16 point where you come to an aggregate.

17 THE COURT: Why haven't you gone back to 18 the first floor to basically get a new order
19 that says, Okay, since -- I mean, it's kind of 20 odd that this matter is in this courtroom. I 09:44AM
21 would have thought a child support matter would 22 be on the child support call.

23 But leaving that aside for the 24 moment, why wouldn't you at this point go back

12/27/2016

1 and get the family law judge to say, Okay, he
2 has missed all these payments; we now have a
3 judgment in the amount of -- I don't know --
4 $400,000, and then you have a judgment from Lake
5 County with a set amount of money that you can
6 then enforce.

09:44AM

7 MR. STEELE: The reason that I would
8 suggest that is it's not necessary. Because of 9 Section 505(d), you don't have to reduce each
10 payment into a separate money judgment; it's 11 automatically created by operation of statute.

09:44AM

12 So we don't have to go in every single month or 13 even at the aggregate end of the month and say,
14 He missed the payments, he admitted missing the 15 payments in these orders, so convert it to a
16 judgment because the statute itself converts it
17 to a judgment. It's probably one of the only
18 areas of law where we have a self-executing
19 statute that converts monies owed into a
20 judgment.

09:45AM

09:45AM

21 And it just so happens that
22 Mr. Ervin has not even disputed making the 23 payments. He says, I didn't make them; I
24 stipulate that I didn't make them. So we have a

12/27/2016

1 judgment entered after each and every payment.

2 THE COURT: You have a Lake County
3 judgment based on each and every missed payment
4 because the Ottawa judgment has been registered
5 in Lake County?

09:45AM

6 MR. STEELE: Correct.

7 THE COURT: So let me just be clear.
8 Are you asking for leave to amend the citation
9 in the order that you are citing to, or are 10 you -- because even what you are telling me 09:45AM
11 today, though, I don't see you relying on the 12 judgment that was the judgment that was cited on 13 the citation.

14 MR. STEELE: The order that we are
15 relying on is the judgment for dissolution, so 09:46AM
16 the judgment that's attached as Exhibit A. But 17 the order that sets forth the money judgment is 18 an order that's entered by operation of law
19 after each and every month. So if we were to 20 ask for leave to amend the citation, we would 09:46AM
21 either be asking to amend it to include 12
22 citations for every single year there were 23 missed payments or at some point to have an
24 aggregate total of what's owed during that time

12/27/2016

1 period. So to the extent you want us to amend
2 our citation --

3 THE COURT: I'm asking if you are
4 seeking that at this point.

5 MR. STEELE: I don't think that it's 09:46AM
6 necessary to amend the citations. I think that
7 the order that's enforceable by citation
8 proceedings is the underlying judgment. That's 9 what gives rise to the series of judgments that 10 are entered by operation of law. 09:46AM

11 THE COURT: But you are not asking for 12 leave to amend cites to that judgment because 13 that, as you are telling me today, is the font
14 of all of the relief that you are seeking?

15 MR. STEELE: To the extent your Honor 09:46AM
16 deems that to be necessary, I would ask for 17 leave to amend our citations to cite to the 18 underlying judgment for dissolution as the 19 basis, yes. The problem with that would be 20 Counsel may come in and say it's not the 09:47AM
21 judgments that's the violations, it's the first 22 payment missed, the second payment missed, the 23 third, fourth, fifth, sixth. That's the series
24 of the judgments that I'm enforcing.

12/27/2016

Page 21

1 THE COURT: Right.

2 MR. STEELE: So I'm not sure what the
3 one-inch line, how to put in what would be like
4 144 separate payments that are missed. But I
5 suppose we can get creative and try to draft our 09:47AM
6 own form.

7 THE COURT: Right. And it's really the 8 attorney's affidavit that we are talking about,
9 right?

10 MR. STEELE: As far as what specific 09:47AM
11 amount is owed and on what basis, that's 12 correct.

13 THE COURT: I'm going to take a look and 14 see if I can find that. Here it is. I thought
15 I saw something in your response that the 09:48AM
16 circuit clerk -- you had originally come in and 17 were citing one particular order and then the 18 circuit clerk advised you, no, you shouldn't 19 cite that, you should cite another. Whether she 20 should -- or he, I guess, at the time -- whether 09:48AM
21 he should have done that or not is another
22 issue.

23 But is that accurate?

24 MR. COOPER: That is correct, your

12/27/2016

1 Honor. When we initially tried to file the
2 citations, it was under the 2000 case number,
3 which was -- subsequently the matter was
4 dismissed because of subject-matter
5 jurisdiction.

09:48AM

6 THE COURT: That order.

7 MR. COOPER: Right. And then that's
8 when we are advised by the clerk to file any 9 citations under the '04 case which had enrolled
10 the 2000 Canadian judgment in Lake County.

09:49AM

11 THE COURT: All right. It is your
12 motion. I will give you the last word.

13 MR. WOLF: Thank you, your Honor.

14 I think the issue before us is 15 really pretty clear. We are talking about the 16 four corners of a citation. Supreme Court
17 Rule 277 requires that there be a certification
18 as to which judgment and the amount. There has 19 been, obviously, a violation of Supreme Court
20 Rule 277. The judgment that was the alleged 21 basis for the citations that were issued was 22 vacated. The secondary attempt of counsels for 23 Serina, as to another judgment, that was 24 vacated.

1 The only thing before you, your
2 Honor, is whether these citations as served and
3 as issued are valid. And I submit they are 4 absolutely invalid under Supreme Court Rule 277.
5 They are invalid. I think that the citations
6 should be quashed.

09:50AM

7 If Counsel wishes to issue further
8 citations on a different basis, there's nothing
9 that necessarily precludes him from doing that.
10 But these citations are invalid.

09:50AM

11 THE COURT: Anything that would preclude
12 me, in your opinion, from allowing him to amend
13 the citation to cite a different basis for the 14 judgment?

15 MR. WOLF: I think there is. First of 16 all, I don't think the matter is properly before
17 you. The only matter before you is the motion
18 to quash the citations. Secondly, what we are 19 dealing with is documents that are certified and 20 are quite simply false. And they are knowingly 21 false because, first of all, they attempted to 22 file it under a different matter. And in their 23 response they indicate that under the judgment
24 they were going to file it had been vacated.

09:50AM

09:50AM

12/27/2016

Page 24

1 That is an acknowledgment by the plaintiffs in
2 their brief.

3 So I simply submit, you know, we
4 are playing hopscotch here. We are going from 5 one to the next to the next. And if they wish 09:51AM
6 to have citations issued, they can do it under 7 whatever basis they choose to do it. But the 8 basis they have chosen so far is invalid and 9 admittedly invalid.

10 THE COURT: What I'm going to try to do 09:51AM
11 is take a few minutes to see if under Rule 277
12 if there is any basis to allow them to amend.
13 So what I am going to do is pass the case. I am
14 going to have to try and get some of these other
15 individuals out of court. I may or may not be 09:52AM
16 ready to rule today. So I will invite you to 17 stick around for a few minutes and I will try to 18 look at that issue.

19 (WHEREUPON, a recess was had.)

20 THE COURT: All right, gentlemen. 10:17AM
21 Unfortunately, I don't want to make you sit 22 here. I have a trial and then I'm going to have 23 an emergency motion coming up from chancery. So
24 I would like to set this for a date for ruling

12/27/2016

1 on basically any date next week. Any
2 preferences? Well, we are closed Monday.

3 MR. STEELE: Would it be possible to go
4 beyond one week just because I would like the 5 opportunity to submit my -- my belief is that 10:17AM
6 the discretion to allow leave to amend is in the 7 case law as opposed to the plain language of the 8 rule and I would like the opportunity to submit 9 that.

10 THE COURT: I was going to read the 10:17AM
11 annotation and see if I could find that. I
12 guess I would say this, you would have to file
13 some sort of motion to that effect, and I'm not 14 granting you leave to do that; I'm not
15 precluding you from doing that. But if your 10:18AM
16 desire is to now amend it somehow, you would 17 have to file a written motion for that.

18 MR. STEELE: Maybe go to two weeks
19 instead of one week, then?

20 THE COURT: Counsel, what's your 10:18AM
21 position?

22 MR. WOLF: I would rather deal with this
23 sooner rather than later, your Honor.

24 THE COURT: That's fine. So I am

12/27/2016

1 appreciative of the holidays. On the other
2 hand, I'm not going to change the schedule just
3 so you can hypothetically file some motion.

4 How about January 4th or 5th in the 5 morning?

10:18AM

6 MR. WOLF: The 4th is good for me, your
7 Honor.

8 MR. STEELE: The 5th would be better for 9 me if that's possible with Counsel.

10 MR. WOLF: I can't do it the 5th, your
11 Honor. I have my wife over at Northwestern
12 Memorial Hospital.

10:18AM

13 THE COURT: Well, that's obviously more
14 important. The 4th at 9:00?

15 MR. STEELE: I'm not available on the 16 4th. I apologize.

10:19AM

17 THE COURT: You want to do the afternoon
18 of January 6th?

19 MR. STEELE: That's fine with me.

20 THE COURT: It's a Friday. The morning
21 is tax deeds, so you do not want to get behind
22 that.

10:19AM

23 MR. WOLF: All right. Let's schedule
24 it.

12/27/2016

Page 27

1 THE COURT: January 6th at 1:30.

2 MR. WOLF: Thank you, your Honor.

3 MR. STEELE: So the only order today is 4 just continuing it?

5 THE COURT: Yes. 10:20AM

6 MR. WOLF: The only point I'd make, your
7 Honor, is that if you consider that to be a
8 written motion to amend, then -- because I did
9 ask for an amendment, but they wanted to amend
10 it to the -- 10:20AM

11 THE COURT: They have to file a written
12 motion if they want to amend it.
